

Nursing Vision

Vision Statement

As strong leaders and collaborative partners, nurses are the foundation of care at C&W. Grounded in knowledge and experience, we are committed to exploring with our diverse community of children, youth, women and families, the journey toward health, hope and healing.

Mission Statement

Nurses at C&W are skilled professionals who provide and promote evidence-based nursing care to B.C.'s families, children, youth & women.

Core Values

A common set of values strengthens and guides us in the way we think and act with one another as nurses, and in our interactions with others.

Accountable: we base our care on nursing standards of practice and are responsible and accountable for our actions.

Advocates: we are champions for patients, families and the profession, working in partnership with the interdisciplinary health care team.

Collaborative: we work as true team players in partnerships with others to deliver the best possible care.

Compassionate: we integrate sensitivity with knowledge and intuition in caring for patients and families.

Competent: we are life-long learners committed to seeking knowledge and skills with a refreshed attitude and clear judgement.

Ethical: we reflect deeply on the values and principles of our profession and the organization when making care decisions.

Evidence-Based: we integrate research-based evidence with our clinical knowledge and patients' needs and preferences to direct nursing care.

Excellent: we strive to provide the best nursing care possible.

Respectful: we seek first to understand, honour and embrace differences and alternate points of view.

Supportive: we actively give help, empathy and encouragement to patients, families, and colleagues.
