STAFF OR PARENT MUST CALL MILK BANK TO CONFIRM ORDER IS AVAILABLE (604-875-3743).

Teaching Points for Parents:

- Every baby using donor milk needs to have another feeding plan in case of low supplies and milk can only be provided for the sickest babies.
- There are two ways for families to get milk: (1) Pick up at BC Women's Hospital or (2) By courier to their home (available for families living outside the Metro Vancouver area at their own cost)
- Staff or parents MUST CALL the Milk Bank (604-875-3743) BEFORE sending a courier or driving to BC Women's Hospital to pick up milk. Advance notice is necessary to be sure milk is available. Pre-payment by credit card is required.
- A fee is charged for donor milk provided on an outpatient basis. For current rates, visit www.bcwomens.ca (search for Milk Bank).
- Unused donor milk cannot be returned to the Milk Bank. It should not be given to other babies.
- See www.bcwomens.ca (search for Milk Bank) for handout "Getting Donor Milk After Leaving the Hospital"
